

TULSA MILLIONAIRES TAKE PART IN MOVIES

Mayor Hubbard, one of the principals in "The Wheeler," Being Produced by Tulsa Talent.

FEATURE ETERNAL TRIANGLE

E. W. Sinclair, H. H. Rogers and C. H. Douglas Among Prominent Men Who Smile for Camera.

Time has no power to fool us about anything shorter than three hours. Within the next 18 hours a film manufacturing company of Chicago, in association with Glenn Gordon of the Majestic Theatre and a number of anonymous western players of Tulsa are filming three thousand feet of a feature-length Tulsa business production entitled "The Wheeler."

The plot is not disclosed now for security, but men and a woman in the eternal triangle and the setting is in the railroad yards and the various species of human supposed to have transpired over an entire division.

The men and the women have many narrow escapes, powers possessed by the villain, and their activities are confined principally to railroad interests. Miss Frances Bidder is the heroine. Astoria Twiss as the temptress. E. M. Franklin as the villain, all of Tulsa are the principal characters. Mayor H. H. Hubbard, who plays the superintendant of the railroad and other prominent men such as E. W. Sinclair, C. H. Douglas and Harry Rogers are to participate according to managers of the film.

One hundred persons appear in the film with street and hunting scenes of Tulsa. Filming begins under Director general, George McLean of the Majestic, who with his chief helper, T. J. Smith, is also one of the characters. It was with Mr. Hilton's permission that the film company had entire use of the studio equipment and shops in West Tulsa for two weeks in connection with preparation of the film.

ABSENCE OF RAIN CAUSES ALARMING FIRE SITUATION

MIRROUILLER, Mont., July 29.—Although no reports of serious developments in the Idaho and Montana forest fire situation had been received here today, forest rangers of Idaho declared conditions were alarming with absence of rain and no prospects for relief in this direction.

A desperate fight was being continued today to save from the flames St. Regis, Stark and Hounds, towns west of here which were threatened with destruction.
